

Notice on MPF Contributions

Employers are required by law to remit every month MPF contributions to the trustee for the previous contribution period (generally means wage period), together with the duly completed Remittance Statement and Notice of Termination of Employment (if applicable). These should reach the trustee on or before the Contribution Day each month (i.e. the 10th day of each month). Please reserve sufficient document delivery and contribution processing time (at least 3 working days) to avoid any delay. A non-complying employer is liable to a surcharge and penalty.

Employers can make MPF contributions and submit contribution data through the following channels:
